

NEXT CONGRESS MEETS IN LONDON

British Capital Will Entertain International Criminologists in 1915.

BRIDE MADE PRESIDENT

Predicted That Result of Washington Meeting Will Be Felt World Over.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The eighth International Prison Congress ended today with the ratification of the section of Sir Evelyn Dugess, K. C. B., as president, and the selection of London as the place for the next meeting in 1915. In his address to the congress, President-Elect Brise said:

"Needless severity, cruelty and unnecessary suffering have passed out of the codes of the civilized world. If then, it may be assumed that the penal codes are no longer cruel and that the prison administration in all countries is well ordered and humane, what is the role left to the International Prison Congress? It is, firstly, to limit by preventive measures, the field of operation of the criminal law. Secondly, when for the protection of society and the maintenance of law it is necessary for the law to strike, that it should not strike blindly, but that the penalty should be adapted as far as practicable to the particular circumstances of each individual case. Thirdly, that when it has struck, and perhaps hardly, there should be rehabilitation and reformation."

President Henderson announced before closing the congress that Egypt and the Transvaal had just been admitted to representation in the congress by the prison commission. Japan and China were represented for the first time at the present congress. Professor Henderson said that this congress had accomplished as much as any congress held within his memory, and he was sure its influence would be felt the world over.

Are Your Kidneys Weak?

THOUSANDS OF MEN AND WOMEN UNWELL THROUGH KIDNEYS FAILING TO PROPERLY FILTER THEIR BLOOD.

Backache, Rheumatism, Scatica, Nervous Disorders, Dropsy and Bright's Disease are Caused by Kidneys not Acting Aright.

Weak kidneys are the common heritage of thousands of Americans. They are the cause of the housewife's backache, pains and the husband's Rheumatic agony when he bends down to his work.

They are also the cause, when those early symptoms are neglected, which leads to permanent Kidney Disinfection, Dropsy and Bright's Disease.

Yet few people take the trouble to look after their kidneys. They busy themselves in relieving the Rheumatism and allaying the backache pains, when all the while the kidneys are struggling at their task, getting weaker and weaker and becoming hopelessly incapable of purifying the blood as they should.

Reader, see that you do not make the same mistake. If you are using drugs or liniments for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Blood Disorders, Nervous Ailments, STOP at once! It is your kidneys that need help.

Make your kidneys healthy and strong by taking

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau.

The Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street.

South Richmond has presented the appearance of the deserted village during much of the past week, practically the entire population having spent one or more days at the State Fair Grounds. However, there were many visitors in town, and the streets in the evenings presented a most elated appearance. All but the last two days of the week, when the rains which dampened the air, among visitors drove away in droves and caused a general exodus of the visitors as well as putting a quietus on most lines of business.

Child Lost at Fair.

Ralph Puckett, the nine-year-old son of Allie Puckett, an electrician, of 123 East Ninth Street, became separated from his father at the Fair Grounds on Thursday night for a time his parents were greatly alarmed. The small boy had sense enough to tell a policeman that he was lost and later in the night the Police Department returned him to his home.

One of the most interesting, as well as one of the most extensive exhibits at the State Fair, has been that of James Bellwood, of Chesterfield county, who not only had a wonderful display of diversified farm products, including many varieties of corn and popcorn, but also samples of 177 varieties of grass raised in his county. Among the visitors to the fair, a variety of alfalfa, in the growing of which Mr. Bellwood has been peculiarly successful.

Found Dead in Bed.

William Hicks, a negro, employed by William Hall, a Chesterfield county farmer, was found dead yesterday morning in his bed in an outbuilding on Mr. Hall's place. He had not been in good health, but as a well as usual on retiring Friday night. He was an old-time drinker, and had refused to see any physician to make an examination of him. Death is said to have been due to natural causes, and there will be no inquest. He was sixty years of age, and widely known among the farmers of Chesterfield and Powhatan counties.

Sixty Star Trespassing.

Joseph Dilworth, a white man, said to be from Pittsburg, was sentenced to sixty days in jail yesterday for trespassing on the property of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company. According to Dilworth's statement he was only passing across the tracks late at night when seen by the watchman, J. S. Belcher, who was the chief witness against him in Police Court.

Italy Day Arrives.

Rally day services will be held at Broad Street Baptist Church today. A special program has been arranged, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

Assembly Methodist Church.

Rev. W. G. Birch will preach at 11 o'clock A. M. on the topic, "The Failure of a Sunday School." At 2 P. M., Rev. W. Asbury Christian, presiding elder of the district, will preach.

Personal Mention.

Sherley A. Hall of Norfolk, formerly of South Richmond, is visiting his mother at her home at Eleventh and Decatur streets. He will return to Norfolk today.

THE PRESIDENT TO-DAY RENEWED HIS promise to send into Ohio a Cabinet member or two to help out in the fight that is being waged there to wrest the State from Harmon, and the same plan will probably be followed in New York.

John Mitchell, former president of the mine workers, and James Duncan, vice-president of the Federation of Labor, saw the President today with reference to labor legislation that is to be recommended in the annual message.

By a decision of the proposed anti-injunction law was not discussed, the disagreement between the President and the labor leaders on that subject being pronounced.

The President assured his callers however, that he would renew his recommendations to Congress, and the removal of dangerous overhead obstructions, and that he has strong hopes of a practical bill being reported by the congressional commission for fixing workmen's compensation for injuries received in the employment of interstate commerce railways. It is proposed to class this compensation as a risk in the business, and the compensation will be paid to the injured party.

Other measures were proposed to the President by his callers, but pending the return of the study of some documents which his callers promised to send him, the President decided not to mention the suggested legislation.

Representative McKinley, of California, saw the President once more in the interests of the San Francisco Panama Exposition in 1915. There is not the slightest doubt that if the President recommends any city as the site for a Panama Canal Exposition, San Francisco will be the city that he will name. The problem that he is seriously considering is whether he shall make any recommendation as to cities in his message or simply refer the entire matter to Congress.

GAME IN RALEIGH IS POORLY PLAYED

Neither A. and M. nor Georgetown Succeeded in Making Score.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., October 8.—In a steady downpour of rain, on a field soaked with water, A. and M. and Georgetown played a sluggish game here today, neither side being able to score. The game was characterized by many fumbles and poor plays, due to the wet condition of the ground.

Georgetown used no forward passes, and A. and M. attempted two unsuccessful ones. Play was interrupted several times by "near-fights, due to the unfair means of play attempted by Georgetown. Sittlering, quarter back of Georgetown, was finally put out of the game for unfair playing.

Georgetown's only chance to score came in the second quarter, but was lost by a fumble on A. and M.'s five-yard line.

A. and M.'s chance to score came in the last two minutes of play, when Hartsell was substituted for Vaneberstein, and by swift runs through tackle carried the ball to within one foot of the goal when time was called.

A. and M. clearly outplayed Georgetown, and during the entire second half the ball was in Georgetown's territory. Hartsell, Robertson, Seifert, Vaneberstein and Stafford starred for A. and M. Dunn and Fitzgerald, of Georgetown, did good work.

JUSTICE SUSTAINS GAMBLING CHARGE

Proprietor of Woodland Club at Hot Springs Sentenced to Two Months' Imprisonment and Fined $1,000—Appeal Is Taken.

Evidence in the Case.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Hot Springs, Va., October 8.—At the trial of Thomas O'Brien, proprietor of the Woodland Club, before Justice W. Anderson at Warm Springs, which was called today, O'Brien was convicted of running a gambling house and sentenced to two months' imprisonment and fined $1,000. His counsel, George A. Revercomb and C. L. Currie, of Staunton, immediately took an appeal to the next term of the Circuit Court of Bath county, which meets on November 20, and their client was held under $5,000 bond for good behavior for twelve months and $1,000 bail for his appearance at the trial before jury.

The witnesses who appeared today were compelled to give $500 for their appearance before the Circuit Court next month.

The trial, as a society sensation, was a disappointment. When it was learned this morning that the hearing was not to be a secret one, and that no women had been called, and the only witnesses were the ones who appeared at the preliminary hearing two weeks ago, no one evinced interest enough to go over to the Virginia, although after luncheon at the Homestead, Mrs. M. L. Esler went over with E. Reavey.

The greater portion of the morning was taken up in arguments by the defendant's counsel, as to the right of Justice Anderson to try the case out of his magisterial district, but the motion was overruled, and the trial proceeded.

Representing the Commonwealth in the absence of the Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. H. Byrd.

Eugene Perry was the first witness called. His statements were not at all clear, and on cross-examination he contradicted himself repeatedly. He denied any knowledge that the Woodland Club was a gambling house, although he admitted he had introduced Roswell Cott, who had lost $3,800 there one night, while with Perry.

Judge W. H. Jackson was next called, and he was the star witness of the proceedings. He was on the stand for an hour and a half, and gave much new evidence, which strengthened the prosecution. He admitted having played nervous, gave damaging testimony, and considerable amusement was caused by the defendant's counsel, who tried to prove that Esler was a professional gambler from the terms he used in his testimony.

Freeman Smith, the last witness, testified that he had played at the club, and the testimony of either Jackson, Esler or Smith would have secured a conviction.

The sensation of the trial was the testimony of Judge Jackson that he had been approached by Emil Fuchs, a New York lawyer, last Thursday in New York, and asked not to appear at the trial. When Judge Jackson refused Fuchs threatened him. He told him that everything would be done to ruin him, and the loss of his outcome in New York would be the outcome.

Would Issue Certificates.

Argument was heard yesterday in the United States District Court before Judge Edmund Waddill Jr., in the case of the Hampton Roads Cattle Company, now in the hands of a receiver, on application for the issuance of certificates in receivers' certificates. Certain of the bondholders appeared by counsel in opposition.
